

2010.12.09 Banciao District Prosecutors Office Press Release

On The Suspected Violation Of Physician Act By The Personnel Of Ying-Jen Hospital

Receiving information indicating that Ying-Jen Hospital superintendent Mr. Huang was suspected of fraud, wrongful death in connection with unlicensed medical practice, Banciao District Prosecutors Office (BDPO) immediately assigned the case to Prosecutor Lin, Shin-Chun. Having collecting relevant evidence and interrogating key witnesses, the prosecutor applied for the search warrants, which were later issued by judge. In the evening of December 7th, the prosecutors directed the police to search two branches of Ying-Jen Hospital. Subsequently, some relevant evidences, including medical records and documents necessary for health insurance applications, were found and seized. Mr. Huang and several others, including Mr. Chung and Mr. Chen, were brought to BDPO for further interrogation.

Based on the significant suspicion, the probabilities of evidence destruction or concealment, as well as witness contamination, pretrial detention of Mr. Huang and Mr. Chung was ordered by judge. Another suspect, Mr. Chen, was released on bail for NTD 50,000. BDPO will continue to investigate this case.
